2. According to the petitioner, the petitioner is running vocational training centre after getting prior approval from the National Council of Vocational and Research Training. Now, the second respondent without giving any notice whatsoever to the petitioner has locked and sealed the petitioner's institution. Challenging the above said order, the present writ petition has been filed.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that now the petitioner is not willing to run the institution and ready to vacate the premises. He would further submit that the petitioner will file an undertaking affidavit before the second respondent stating that the petitioner will not run any institution. The petitioner has also made an averment to that effect in ground (d) of the affidavit filed in support of this writ petition.

4. In the above circumstances, the petitioner is directed to approach the second respondent and file an undertaking affidavit before the second respondent stating that the petitioner institution will not run the institution anymore and he will close the same immediately. If any such undertaking affidavit is filed by the petitioner, the second respondent is directed to remove the lock and seal affixed in the petitioner's institution.

5. With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, W.M.P(MD) Nos. 2665 and 2666 of 2018 are closed.
