Heard the learned Counsel on either side.

2. The petitioners in these writ petitions were appointed in a non-teaching post in the third respondent/School. The proposal was submitted by the management of the said School for approval. The second respondent however rejected the same. Hence this writ petitions have been filed.

3. It is not in dispute that the vacancies in respect of which the appointments were made arose in sanctioned posts. It is also not in dispute that the petitioners are eligible to be so appointed. Therefore the second respondent was in error in rejecting the proposals. The orders impugned in these writ petitions stand quashed.

4. This Court directs the second respondent to approve the appointment of the writ petitioners from the date when they were appointed and also disburse the salary grant and other consequential monetary benefits forthwith and without any delay.
