4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) on instructions, would submit that during the enquiry, it was informed that as per the direction of the Block Development Officer, the proposed accused demolished the bridge, which connected the petitioner's colony to the village, for the reason that due to the stagnant of water, the bridge was in the damaged condition. Hence, the proposed accused removed the damaged bridge and cleared the stagnant water and subsequently, they built the bridge and public are using the said bridge. Therefore, the complaint preferred by the petitioner was closed.

5. By recording the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side), the Criminal Original Petition is dismissed. However, it is open to the petitioner to approach the concerned Magistrate Court, if necessary, to work out his remedy in the manner known to law.
