ORDER

This writ petition has been filed, challenging the order passed by the second respondent dated 13.09.2013.

2.Against the order passed by the second respondent / Revenue Divisional Officer, a revision is provided before the first respondent / District Revenue Officer. The petitioner without availing alternative remedy filed the present writ petition before this court.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the impugned order has been passed without issuing any notice to the petitioner and in violation of principles of natural justice.

4.On perusal of the records, it is seen that a notice has been issued to the petitioner and the petitioner has also raised his objections before the second respondent on 24.07.2013 and the second respondent after considering the same and the report submitted by the Tahsildar, Sivakasi, has passed the impugned order, sub-dividing the land and granted patta in favour of the respondents 4 and 5. If the petitioner has any grievance against the order, the petitioner has to file a revision before the appropriate authority and without availing alternative remedy, he cannot maintain this writ petition,

5.Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed. However, liberty is given to the petitioner to file a revision before the appropriate authority, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
