ORDER

This petition has been filed to quash the proceedings in S.T.C.No.3 of 2017 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Tirunelveli.

2.This petition has been filed on the ground that the complaint does not contain any material with regard to the actual money transaction that happened between the petitioner and the respondent. The further ground that has been taken by the petitioner is that the cheque was given as security and the same has been misused by the respondent. The learned counsel has also disputed the liability on the ground that the promissory note was executed only by the petitioner's husband.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would further submit that the petitioner does not owe any money to the respondent and the cheque has been misused by the respondent and a criminal complaint has been filed.

4.The grounds raised by the petitioner are all factual in nature. These grounds will have to be established before the Court below in the course of trial. The Court below is directed to consider the grounds raised by the petitioner on its own merits and in accordance with law. This Court does not find any ground to interfere with the proceedings at this stage.
