18. Heard, Mr.V.Kathirvel, learned Senior Counsel Assisted by M/s.H.Arumugam and S.Satheesh Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioners and Mr.A.P.G.Ohm Chairma Prabhu, learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) for the first respondent in CrI.O.P.(MD).No.9726/2017, M/s.Meenakshi Sundaram, learned counsel for the respondents in CrI.O.P.(MD).Nos.11332, 11335, 11340 and 11341/2011, Mr.N.Dillip Kumar, learned counsel for the respondent in CrI.O.P.(MD).No.11333/2011, Mr.S.R.Anbarasu, learned counsel for the respondent in CrI.O.P.(MD).Nos.11336, 11338 and 11339/2011, N.Mohideen Basha, learned counsel for the respondent in CrI.O.P.(MD).No.11337/2011 and Mr.J.Parekh Kumar, learned counsel for the respondent in CrI.O.P.(MD).No.11343/2011.

19. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioner Dr.Ramalakshmi and P.Raja Samuel are wife and husband respectively. He further submitted that the respondents herein have filed a number of cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, against the petitioners before various Courts. He further submitted that based on the complaint given by one of the petitioners viz., Dr.Ramalakshmi, the Inspector of Police, Perumalpuram Police Station, Tirunelveli City, registered a case in Cr.No.349 of 2010 against the respondents herein under Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Charging Exorbitant Interest Act and Section 506 (ii) IPC. He further submitted that after investigation, the Inspector of Police has filed a charge sheet and based on the said charge sheet, the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tirunelveli has taken the case on file in C.C.No.77 of 2010 against the respondents herein and others. He further submitted that since the case filed by the respondents herein and the case in C.C.No.77 of 2012 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tirunelveli, are cross cases, all the cases have to be jointly tried by the same Magistrate, and then only, the facts can be properly appreciated. In support of the said contention, he relied upon the decision in Nathi Lal and others Vs. State of U.P. and others, 1990 (Supp) SCC 145.

20. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that in the cases filed by the respondents, the cheques were issued on different dates, presented on different dates and separate notices have been issued in respect of each default and as such, the transactions cannot be said as single transaction and therefore, joint trial cannot be ordered. They further submitted that in some of the cases already evidence has been recorded and at this stage, if the cases are transferred that would cause prejudice to the respondents/complainants. They further submitted that the case in C.C.No.77 of 2012 which is pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tirunelveli, cannot be treated as cross case to the cases filed by the respondents/complainants and therefore, they prayed to dismiss the aforesaid petitions.

23. In Nathi Lal and others Vs. State of U.P. and others, (supra) the Hon'ble Apex Court in paras 2 and 3, has observed as follows:-

"2. We think that the fair procedure to adopt in a matter like the present where there are cross cases, is to direct that the same learned Judge must try both the cross cases one after the other. After the recording of evidence in one case is completed, he must hear the arguments but he must reserve the judgment. Thereafter he must proceed to hear the cross case and after recording all the evidence he must hear the arguments but reserve the judgment in that case. The same learned Judge must thereafter dispose of the matters by two separate judgments. In deciding each of the cases, he can rely only on the evidence recorded in that particular case. The evidence recorded in the cross case cannot be looked into. Nor can the judge be influenced whatever is argued in the cross case. Each case must be decided on the basis of the evidence which has been placed on record in that particular case without being influenced in any manner by the evidence or arguments urged in the cross case. But both the judgments must be pronounced by the same learned Judge one after the other.

3. We allow this appeal partly to the aforesaid extent and direct the learned Judge to proceed with the Police case and the cross case instituted by the respondent-complainant by way of a private complaint and hold the trial in both the matters in the light of the directions given herein above. Learned Judge will accord priority to these cross cases and dispose of both the cases expeditiously."

24. From the aforesaid decision, it is clear that where there are cross cases, all the cases have to be tried by the same Judge one after the other, but they should be disposed of by separate judgements. It is also clear that in deciding each of the cases, he can rely only on the evidence recorded in that particular case. He cannot look into the evidence recorded in other cases. It is also clear that the joint trial is not permissible and only simultaneous trial is permissible.

25. It is to be pointed out that in three petitions viz., CrI.O.P.No.9726 of 2017, 11352 and 11353 of 2017, the petitioners have asked for joint trial of the cases mentioned in the aforesaid petitions along with the case in C.C.No.77 of 2012, which is pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tirunelveli. In other petitions, the petitioners have asked to transfer the cases mentioned in those petitions to some other Court, other than the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tirunelveli District. Since the petitioners themselves asked for joint trial in CrI.O.P.Nos.9726, 11352 and 11353 of 2017, they cannot ask for transfer of the cases out side the District of Tirunelveli.
