2.Mr.A.Vadivel, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, when a pointed query was raised by this Court, has very fairly submitted that, pursuant to the impugned transfer order, the petitioner joined in the transferred place. Now, since she was aggrieved over the said transfer order, she has challenged the same before this Court.

3. Since the petitioner had joined in the transferred place as admitted by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, the impugned order has been acted upon with the act of the petitioner herself and therefore, the question of challenging the same at this juncture does not arise. Hence, without going into the merits as to the sustainability of the impugned order of transfer, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are also dismissed.
