COMMON ORDER

The prayer in all these writ petitions is to forbear the respondents from terminating the petitioners. The writ petitions were filed way back in November, 2014. It is fairly submitted by the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioners that the petitioners are at present not working. Therefore, nothing survives for adjudication in all these writ petitions.

2.Recording the said submission, these writ petitions are closed as infructuous. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are also closed. No costs.
