2.The matter is pending for more than an year till now. The petitioner has not yet served notice on the third respondent. The status report filed also would indicate that investigation is done by CBCID, Thanjavur. Thus, the official respondents do not have any role in this.

3. In such view of the matter, we are not inclined to keep the petition pending. However, we make it clear that the investigation done by CBCID in Crime No.29 of 2017 for man missing will have to be continued.

4. This Habeas Corpus Petition is closed with the above observation and direction.
