The relief sought for by the petitioner is purely of civil nature. If at all he wants to get an order of injunction on the disputed facts, he has to approach civil court for getting his grievance redressed. The writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India cannot be entertained on factual disputes.

Hence, the writ petition is not maintainable. Accordingly, the same is dismissed. No costs. It is always open to the petitioner to approach the civil court for getting grievance redressed. Consequently, connected W.M.P.(MD) No.12512 of 2018 is also dismissed.
