2.The appellant herein is arrayed as the 13th accused in the triple murder case. This Court had opportuned to peruse the case records as well as the final report and found that serious overt act is attributed to this petitioner who has caused serious injury to one of the victims. Further from the counter filed by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, this Court finds that this petitioner has few other criminal cases pending against him which are very grievous in nature. If this petitioner is released on bail, certainly, his presence will cause apprehension in the mind of the victim as well as the witness.

3. This Criminal Appeal stands dismissed accordingly.
