2. The petitioners are four in number. There are totally 58 applications. All the petitioners are in custody for more than a month. They were all arrested in connection with anti sterlite protest. The Court below, while granting them bail, has imposed a condition that they should deposit certain sums of money. It is submitted that the petitioners are coolies and they do not have wherewithal to mobilise the funds for complying the said condition. Since they were not able to make cash deposit to comply the condition, they are lavishly inside the jail and unable to come out.

3. Therefore, this Court is inclined to set aside the order passed by the Court below with regard to the deposit of the certain sums of money alone. Accordingly, all these petitions stands allowed.

4. The petitioners are permitted to offer common sureties covering all their cases.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioners apprehends that the petitioners may be implicated in other cases. Hence, if the police intend to implicate the petitioners in any other case, the police shall send notice to the petitioners under Section 41 A of Cr.P.C. It will give breathing time to the petitioners to approach this Court for anticipatory bail.
