Government Advocate[Criminal side]

ORDER

This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.182 of 2015 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate [Criminal Side] appearing for the first respondent.

3.The learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) would submit that the trial has already commenced in this case and D.W.1 has already been examined. He would further submit that there are totally three witnesses in this case.

4. In view of the above submission, this Court does not want to interfere with the proceedings at this stage. Hence, this Court directs the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai to complete the proceedings in C.C.No.182 of 2015 within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the presence of the petitioners shall be dispensed with, since they are senior citizens.

6. Accepting the said submission, the presence of the petitioners before the trial Court shall be dispensed with on condition that they shall be present at the time of questioning under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. and at the time of passing judgment.

7. The petitioners are further directed to give an undertaking in the form of affidavit that the Counsel representing them will cross examine the prosecution witnesses on the day they are examined in chief. The petitioners shall not dispute the identity of the witnesses. If the petitioners adopts any dilatorial tactics, it is open to the Trial Court to insist for their appearance and deal with the petitioners in accordance with the judgment of Supreme Court of India, in State of Uttar Pradesh Vs. Shambunath Singh, reported in JT 2001(4)s SC 319.

8. With the above direction, this criminal original petition is disposed of. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are also closed.
