ORDER

The Criminal Original Petition has been filed for a direction to the second respondent to give police protection to the petitioner.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has filed a suit in O.S.No.1458 of 2016 before the learned Additional Subordinate Judge, Trichy. In the said suit, the petitioner has also obtained an order of injunction in his favour in I.A.No.538 of 2016. The learned counsel would further submit that the third respondent, inspite of order of interim injunction, continuously violating the said order, assaulted and threatened the petitioner.

3. In a case of this nature, where there is a complaint with regard to violation of an order passed by a civil Court, more particularly when the order in question is an exparte injunction order, if there is violation of the said order, the parties will have to resort to remedies available under the C.P.C. The petition for police protection before this Court will not be

4. The petitioner is at liberty to approach the civil Court by filing an appropriate application against the third respondent, if there is violation of the interim order granted in his favour.

5. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
