Special Government Pleader

ORDER

Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2.The petitioner's father passed away on 05.08.2001. He was working as a Teacher in the Panchayat Union Middle School. An application for appointment of compassionate grounds was submitted in time. But the authorities did not process the matter and issue was pending for a long number of years. Only by the impugned order dated 31.05.2017, the petitioner's request was rejected. The same is assailed in this Writ Petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the reason assigned in the impugned order is not sufficient to decline his request.

4. This Court is unable to agree. The petitioner's father died in the year 2001 and the petitioner got married in the year 2003. The petitioner's wife is working in a Government Aided School as a Teacher. Therefore, the petitioner cannot be said to be in financial distress. The purpose of granting compassionate appointment is to help the family in distress and to relieve them from sorrows. The question of granting compassionate appointment will not arise in this case at all. There is no merit in the Writ Petition.

5. The Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
