The petitioner was working as a Conductor in the respondent corporation. He retired from service on 31.07.2014. Thereafter, the settlement was entered into between the trade union and the management providing for retrospective revision of basic pay. It cannot be disputed that the writ petitioner is entitled to the benefits under the said settlement. Therefore, the writ petitioner has sought payment of the dues amount. Since the writ petitioner's request was not considered, this writ petition has been filed.

2. The fair stand taken by the respondents that the amounts payable by way of dues amount to the petitioner will be disbursed within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that the amounts payable to the writ petitioner will carry interest at the rate of 6% from the date of settlement.
