ORDER

The Petitioner has come forward with this Writ Petition seeking to issue a Writ of Mandamus, directing the respondents to compute and pay the petitioner's entire terminal benefits payable to him including commuted value of pension, surrender leave salary and Terminal Leave Salary by strictly adhering to the pay revision given, under settlement entered on 04.01.2018, under Section 12(3) of the ID Act, together with interest at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of his retirement to till the date of payment within the time stipulated by this Court.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner has produced a copy of the judgment in W.A(MD) Nos. 465 of 2013 and batch, dated 30.6.2017, wherein this Court while dealing with the similar issue, has passed the following order:

'39. In the result, the first set of Writ Appeals filed by the Management are dismissed, the second set of Writ Appeals filed by the workmen are partly allowed; and the third and last set of Writ Appeals filed are allowed, with a direction to the Management to settle the entire terminal benefits to the workmen in twelve equated monthly installments together with the simple interest at 6% per annum on the expiry of three months from the date of retirement of the concerned workman, in default, to pay interest at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of retirement till the date of payment. The first monthly installment shall commence from November 2017 and the terminal benefits shall be paid on or before 10th of the said month and the remaining installments shall be paid on or before 10th day of every succeeding month. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.'

3. On a perusal of the judgement referred to by the learned counsel for the Petitioner, it is apparent that the matter is squarely applicable to the facts of the present case. Therefore, this Writ Petition is disposed of in terms of the above judgement as follows:

'In the result, this Writ Petition is disposed of with a direction to the Management to settle the entire terminal benefits to the workmen in twelve equated monthly installments together with the simple interest at 6% per annum on the expiry of three months from the date of retirement of the concerned workman, in default, to pay interest at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of retirement till the date of payment. The first monthly installment shall commence from November 2018 and the terminal benefits shall be paid on or before 3rd of the said month and the remaining installments shall be paid on or before 10th day of every succeeding month. No costs.''
