COMMON JUDGEMENT

[Judgements of the Court was made by K.RAVICHANDRABAABU, J.]

The learned counsel for the appellants seeks permission of this Court to withdraw these Writ Appeals, however, by seeking liberty to approach the Court as and when necessary. This Court is not expressing any view on the rights of the appellants, since the appellants are seeking to withdraw these appeals themselves.

2.Accordingly, these Writ Appeals are dismissed as withdrawn. It is open to the appellants to resort to the remedies available before the competent authorities in the manner known to law, provided such remedies are available to them under law. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are dismissed.
