2.According to the petitioner, she has got decree from the civil Court in O.S.No.11 of 2007 and for executing of decree, she has filed E.P.No.33 of 2009 on the file of the District Munsif Court, Kovilpatti and based on the order passed in the above execution petition, possession of the property was handed over to the petitioner. Subsequently, the second respondent, Inspector of Police, Kovilpatti East Police Station, threatened the petitioner to hand over possession to third parties. In the above circumstances, this writ petition has been filed.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that possession of the property in dispute is still with the petitioner and the concerned Inspector of Police has been transferred from the above police station.

4.In view of the above submission, nothing survives in the petition for adjudication. Hence, this writ petition is dismissed. However, it is always open to the petitioner to approach the authorities concerned as and when occasion arises. No costs.
