No doubt as pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioner from the very FIR allegations on that day at about 12.45 Noon, Kareemulla, Mastan, Amar, Naveen, Vamsi (petitioner/A5), Srikanth and Nagaraju armed with sticks and iron rods entered into their house and Mastan bet with iron rod on the head of the defacto complainant Areti Venkamma wife of Thirupathi and others bet with sticks, hands and legs her son Srinivas and also with sticks or hands or legs her sister Alivelu and she sustained bleeding head injuries and her son also sustained some injuries and her sister also sustained contusive injury to her left elbow and the accused fled away and that there is no specific overt act attributed against the petitioner, but for one of the members of the so called unlawful assembly and there is no case under Section 307 IPC for not even a case of Mastan has given several blows on her but for the one and all fled away.

However, still it is not a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail including from the say of the petitioner is a national player in Ragbi.
