The petitioners apprehend the dispossession by respondent No.4.

The Assistant Government Pleader submits that on mere apprehension, the writ petition ought not to be entertained at any rate. He further states that the respondents, if are desirous of taking subject matter for any public purpose, the same ought to be in accordance with law.

This Court is of the view that on apprehensions expressed by the petitioners, the writ petition ought not to be entertained likewise, it is needless to observe that respondents ought not to interfere with the right of citizen except in the manner known to law.

Writ petition is dismissed with the above observation. No order as to costs.

Miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending, shall stand closed.
