2. I.A.Nos.1 and 2 of 2018 are filed under Sections 320(6) and 320(2) of Cr.P.C., by both parties seeking leave of this Court to compound the offences and to record compromise as the matter was settled out of the Court due to intervention of the elders and to quash the proceedings in the aforesaid case.

3. Today, when the matter came up for hearing, the second respondent/de-facto complainant and the petitioners/accused are present and they are identified by their respective counsel. 4. Though the offence alleged against the petitioners is non-compoundable, by exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 of Cr.P.C., and following the principles laid down in Parbatbhai Aahir and others V.

State of Gujarat and others¹ and as the offence is against an individual and not against the society, permission is accorded to compound the offences alleged against the petitioners. Therefore, I find that it is a fit case to quash the proceedings against the petitioners/A1 to A4.
