

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.RAMASUBRAMANIAN

Civil Revision Petition No.5986 of 2018

Order:

Aggrieved by the dismissal of an application for Police Aid, the plaintiff in a suit for perpetual injunction has come up with the above revision.

2. Heard Mr. A.Prabhakar Rao, learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. Police Aid was sought by the petitioner obviously to enforce an order of status quo. But an order of status quo is completely different from an order of injunction. If there is an order of injunction, Police Aid could be granted. When there is only an order of status quo, the Court cannot leave it to the Police to decide as to what was the status quo on that date. Hence, leaving it open to the petitioner to work out other remedies, this revision is dismissed. The Court below shall endeavour to dispose of the suit within a period of four months. Pending applications, if any, shall stand closed. No costs.
