

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE ABHINAND KUMAR SHAVILI

WRIT PETITION No.5094 of 2002

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking Mandamus declaring the award passed by the Labour Court I Hyderabad in I.D.No.114 of 1998 as arbitrary and illegal to the extent of denying back-wages and other attendant benefits to the petitioner and for a consequential direction to the 2nd respondent to pay back-wages and other attendant benefits from the date of termination dated 12.12.1997 till the date of reinstatement and also further direction to the 2nd respondent to release the admitted amount of Rs.11,641.23 ps., towards his monthly salary, telephone bills, T.A. bills etc.

2. Heard Ms.B.Anuradha, learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Labour for the 1st respondent.

3. It has been contended by the petitioner that when his services were terminated, he approached the Labour Court by filing I.D., referred above and the learned Labour Court, after considering the entire case, passed award on 17.09.2001, setting aside the orders of termination and directed that he be reinstated into service with continuity of service, however, while passing the said order, the Labour Court has denied back-wages and other attendant benefits on the ground that the he was gainfully employed.

4. When the matter is taken up for hearing, it has been noticed that the writ petition, against the 2nd respondent against which the petitioner is claiming the relief, was dismissed for default vide order dated 18.08.2010 and thereafter no steps have been taken by the petitioner to seek restoration of the writ petition against the 2nd respondent.

5. In view of the dismissal of the writ petition against the 2nd respondent, no relief can be granted to the petitioner.

6. Writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.

As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions, if any pending, shall stand closed.
