2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader.

3. As can be seen from the material placed before this Court, though the petitioners claim that they have filed applications seeking to mutate their lands and they got issued a legal notice, there is no specific assertion in the affidavit filed along with this Writ Petition that they have approached the competent authority by invoking any particular provision of law as is required under ROR Act. As the details furnished in the Writ Petition are sketchy, no relief can be granted to the petitioners except granting liberty to the petitioners to approach the authorities by making necessary application furnishing all the necessary material as prescribed under the rules. As and when such applications are made, the respondent authorities shall consider the same by strictly following the procedure prescribed in law .

4. Accordingly, Writ Petition is disposed of.

Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall also stand closed. No order as to costs.
