Coram: Hon'ble Mr.Justice Jaswant Singh

Present:- Mr.R.S.Tacoria,Advocate for the petitioner

Jaswant Singh,J,(Oral).

Petitioner claims that his predecessors-in-interest namely Daulat Ram and Durga Dass sons of Mathu Ram were allotted two standard acres and 8½ units of agriculture land in Village Bana, District Hoshiarpur vide allotment letter dated 14.3.1989 based on their possession.

It is not disputed that the aforesaid land was earlier allotted to one Amar Singh on 22.1.1952 but was subsequently cancelled and communicated on 9.1.1978 by the Managing Officer concerned, being a case of double allotment. The cancellation orders were challenged before the authorities by the legal representatives i.e. daughters of Amar Singh and successor-in-interest Mohinder Singh which were decided against them and became final upto this Court.

Petitioner has filed the present contempt with the allegation that the Revenue authorities are continuing to show the revenue entries in favour of daughters of Amar Singh inspite of cancellation order having become final against them.

After arguing for sometime and realizing that petitioner has independent remedy qua recording of mutation proceedings, prays for permission to withdraw the petition.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
