AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (ORAL)

Counsel for the petitioner contends that the amount, which has been paid to the petitioner, is much less. He further states that the petitioner is entitled to some other benefits, which have not been granted to her. He prays that liberty may be granted to the petitioner to avail of her remedy for claiming the same.

In view of the above, the present contempt petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to agitate her claim, which, according to her, has still not been granted to her.

Rule issued to the respondents stands discharged.
