NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

The present contempt petition has been filed for non-compliance of the order dated 13.01.2016.

A perusal of the case file shows that the matter was adjourned twice on the written request for adjournment circulated on behalf of learned counsel for the petitioners. Today, also a written request for adjournment is made.

Learned counsel for the respondents have opposed the adjournment and rightly so. It is stated by learned counsel for respondents that the order has been complied with and the amount has since been deposited in the account of the petitioners on 07.09.2017 in terms of the order of this Court dated 31.08.2017.

In view of the same, this Court does not deem it proper to proceed with the contempt petition any further and the same is dismissed.

However, in case there is any discrepancy in the said amount, the petitioners are at liberty to file representation within four weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, which shall be decided by the respondents, in accordance with law.
