JASWANT SINGH, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner-Raj Rani had filed writ petition bearing CWP No.25857 of 2014, seeking, inter alia, quashing the impugned action of the respondent to reject her claim for family pension, claimed by the widow of an employee, who had died on 23.08.1987 after completing 10 years of service on work-charge basis of Cleaner-cum-Messenger. The said writ petition was disposed of by this Court vide order dated 18.02.2016 (Annexure P-1) with a direction 'to respondent to consider the case of the petitioner for family pension and grant her family pension, in view of judgment of Lajwanti's case and the petitioner shall be entitled for arrears of 38 months prior to date of filing of the writ petition.

Since the needful was not done, hence the present contempt petition.

Upon notice, a reply stands filed, where in para No.4, it is stated that arrears of payment of Rs.4,56,105/- have been disbursed to the petitioner vide cheque No.484512 dated 16.11.2017, therefore, the order in question has been complied. A copy of the Pension Payment Order (PPO) dated 09.11.2017 in favour of the petitioner-Raj Rani is enclosed as Anneuxre R-1 / R-2.

In view of above, learned counsel for the respondent states that the order dated 18.02.2016 (P-1) has been complied with and no further action is warranted in the present contempt petition.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for withdrawal the present contempt petition.
