DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

On perusal of order dated 27.12.2017, it is apparent that approval has been granted to refund the amount as per revised demand but the petitioner instead of approaching the concerned authority, has approached this Court by way of contempt petition.

No ground is made out to initiate the contempt proceedings.

Dismissed.

However, the petitioner is at liberty to move representation as the claim of the petitioner has been admitted in principal as per order dated 27.12.2017. In case such representation is made, the respondents are directed to take action thereupon within a period of two weeks thereafter.
