

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCP 683/2018

Date of decision:27.02.2018.

Jagdish Chand Sharma

.....Petitioner

v.

Sandeep Mangla and others

.....Respondent

Coram: Hon'ble Mr.Justice Jaswant Singh

Present:- Mr.Ajay Jain,Advocate for the petitioner

Jaswant Singh,J,(Oral).

Petitioner is a decree holder in a suit for possession of open piece of land, fully described in the suit, as also an injunction order restraining the private defendants from raising any future construction on the suit land. In the execution filed by the petitioner/plaintiff, Gram Panchayat Hasanpur, he filed third party objections claiming to be owner in possession. It is averred that the said objections and the execution petition were dismissed and the order duly upheld in a revision by this Court. It is conceded that the decree qua possession stood duly executed by deliverance of possession on 4.2.2012. It is contended that now after almost six years, Gram Panchayat is threatening the peaceful possession of the petitioner/decree holder of the aforesaid suit land by installing cemented poles etc.

It is not disputed that there was no injunction decree against Gram Panchayat although they had resisted deliverance of possession to the petitioner/plaintiff.

After arguing for sometime counsel prays for permission to withdraw the present contempt to enable his client to pursue his remedy in accordance with law.

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.
