DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Admittedly, order dated 21.10.2015 passed in CWP No.22667 of 2015 has been accepted in principal but the petitioners have filed the present contempt petition on the ground that necessary benefits have not been released.

On perusal of order dated 21.10.2015, it shows that only direction was given to respondent No.2 to take decision on legal notice dated 07.09.2015, issued by the petitioners, by passing a speaking order after affording opportunity of hearing to them. In compliance of said direction, order dated 03.02.2016 has been passed. The only grievance of the petitioners is that order dated 03.02.2016 passed by the Director, State Transport has not been given effect and benefits have not been released.

Keeping in view the direction given, no case is made out to initiate the contempt proceedings.

However, respondents No.2 and 3 are directed to give the benefits as mentioned in order dated 03.02.2016, preferably within a period of two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

Disposed of.
