

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

COCP 920/2018

Date of decision:20.04.2018.

Parvinder Singh

.....Petitioner

v.

Amandeep Kaur and another

.....Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mr.Justice Jaswant Singh

Present:- Mr.Kanwaljit Singh,Senior Advocate assisted by Mr.Sarthak Gupta,Advocate for the petitioner

Mr.Ravi Chadda,Advocate for respondents 1 and 2

Jaswant Singh,J,(Oral).

Marriage between petitioner-Parvinder Singh and respondent no.1-Amandeep Kaur stood dissolved by a decree of divorce dated 2.1.2018 by way of mutual consent. Petitioner is a resident of Canada and keeps visiting India. By filing present contempt it was alleged that respondent no.1-Amandeep Kaur was violating the mutually agreed terms and conditions regarding visitation rights of the petitioner-father for meeting his 4-1/2 years old child on his visit back to India from abroad.

Notice of motion was issued; respondents were directed to produce the minor child before the Mediation Center, Sessions Division, Hoshiarpur for one hourly meeting at 2.30 pm each from 26th March to 28th March,2018; and the matter was listed for hearing on 16.4.2018.

On 16.4.2018, counsel for the petitioner stated that his client was leaving for Canada on 19.4.2018 and therefore,prayed for one more opportunity alongwith his mother to meet the minor child before the Mediation Center. Accordingly, respondent wife was directed to produce the minor child for a one hourly meeting at 2.30 pm on 18.4.2018 before the Mediation Center, Sessions Division,Hoshiarpur to meet the petitioner father and paternal grand mother. The matter was posted for further hearing today.

At the time of hearing today,learned counsel for the petitioner states that as per directions of this Court the respondent wife had produced the minor child and the meeting between petitioner, his mother and minor child took place. He further states that the instant petition has become infructuous.

In view of the stand taken by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the instant petition is disposed of as having become infructuous.
