IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CIVIL REVISION-1415-2018

Date of decision:01.03.2018.

MANOJ

... Petitioner

Versus

BIRMATI

.... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARI PAL VERMA

Present: Mr. Bikram Chaudhary, Advocate, for the petitioner.

HARI PAL VERMA, J.(Oral)

Though the instant revision petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner-husband has challenged the order dated 08.02.2018 passed by the trial Court whereby his defence has been struck off, as well as order of even date, whereby the case has been adjourned for ex parte evidence of respondent-wife.

Learned counsel states that the petitioner is ready to deposit the outstanding arrears including litigation expenses on or before 06.03.2018 and to join the proceedings. Therefore, he be allowed to lead his evidence and proceedings dated 08.02.2018, whereby his defence was struck off, be set aside.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

In case, the petitioner deposits the outstanding arrears of maintenance and litigation expenses on or before 06.03.2018, he would be allowed to cross-examine the plaintiff's witnesses on the date fixed. The order dated 08.02.2018 whereby the case has been fixed for ex parte evidence of the petitioner shall also liable to be set aside in case he deposits the outstanding amount as indicated above. The petitioner shall also pay costs of ₹5,000/- to the respondent-wife.

Disposed of.

Present petition has been disposed of at this stage without issuing notice to the respondent as it would further delay the proceedings. Moreover the interest of the respondent has been protected, for which she is being compensated.
