ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

Counsel for the petitioner has very fairly submitted that the main petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act has already been dismissed and the petitioner has already filed an appeal challenging the aforesaid order.

This revision petition has been filed against the order passed by the learned trial Court while deciding the application filed under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act granting maintenance pendente lite. Once the main petition itself has been dismissed, in the considered opinion of this Court, the present revision petition does not survive.

In view of the above, the present revision petition is dismissed as infructuous.
