KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

This order of mine shall dispose of four connected revision petitions, bearing CR Nos.2704 to 2707 of 2017, involving the same issue.

The short prayer made in the aforesaid revision petitions filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is that the execution proceedings are pending before the Executing Court since the year 2016 and that the Executing Court is not proceeding with the matter.

On behalf of the opposite party, it is stated that two sets of appeals are pending against the judgment sought to be executed. However, it is conceded that no stay has been granted in the said appeals.

It being so, unless there is a stay order to the execution, the Executing Court is supposed to execute the decree expeditiously. There is no ground to grant repeated adjournments. Therefore, the Executing Court is directed that unless there is a stay from the superior Court, the Executing Court shall deal with the execution expeditiously and dispose of the same not later than six months.

As such, all the aforesaid revision petitions are disposed of.
