

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Revision No.2870 of 2018.

Decided on:-May 03, 2018.

Radhey Shyam.

.....Petitioner.

Versus

Prem Chand Bansal and others

.....Respondents.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARI PAL VERMA.

Present:- Ms. Komal Preet Handa, Advocate for
Mr. Partap Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

HARI PAL VERMA, J. (Oral)

The petitioner has filed the present civil revision under Article 227 of the Constitution of India impugning the order dated 18.04.2018 (Annexure P-2) passed by learned District Judge, Jind, whereby the application filed by the petitioner in the pending civil appeal for transfer of the same to any other Court, was dismissed.

In the pending civil appeal before the District Judge, Jind, the petitioner had moved an application for transfer of his civil appeal from the Court of Shri Amit Singh Chalia, Additional District Judge, Jind to some other Court on the ground that another civil appeal on the similar facts had already been decided by the same judicial officer and, therefore, his view is static.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

This Court does not find any illegality in the impugned order dated 18.04.2018 passed by learned District Judge, Jind, which may warrant interference by invoking revisional jurisdiction of this Court. No one has a right to seek transfer of the case/appeal merely on the ground that the view of judicial officer is static and he has decided another case on similar facts.

Accordingly, the impugned order dated 18.04.2018 passed by learned District Judge, Jind is affirmed and the instant civil revision, being devoid of any merit, is dismissed.
