This revision petition has been filed against the concurrent judgments of the Courts below evicting the petitioner from the premises in dispute.

With the intervention of the learned counsel for the parties the matter has been settled. Counsel for the petitioner on instruction from his client-Raj Kumar states that he would not press this petition on merits and would withdraw the petition and will hand over the possession to the respondent today itself.

Counsel for the respondent on instructions from his client who is present in the Court states that in consideration for this they are willing to forego whatever rent/mesne profit which the petitioner has deposited in the Court since December 1998 till date and he has no objection if the petitioner withdraws the amount.

The petitioner has handed over the keys of the premises to the respondents and today itself the petitioner can accompany the landlord and remove whatever articles are lying in the premises in dispute.

The petition stands disposed of with the above terms.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
