Heard.

It comes out that petition under Section 9 of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, is pending between the parties. Pending said litigation, the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Faridabad, ordered present petitioner husband to pay Rs. 11,000/- as costs of litigation to his wife. There is no illegality or infirmity in said order in ordering husband to pay litigation costs. Consequently, revision is dismissed. Since main case has been dismissed, application pending, if any, also stands disposed of.
