This revision has been filed against the concurrent orders of the Courts below allowing ejectment of the petitioners-tenant from the demised premises.

After arguing form some time the matter has been settled with the intervention of the learned Counsel. Today on instructions from his client the learned counsel for the petitioners has stated that the petitioners will not press this petition on merits and will vacate the premises voluntarily on or before 2.7.2018 without forcing the respondent to file/pressing an execution petition.

Mr. Puneet Jindal, Senior Advocate has entered appearance on behalf of the respondent and after taking instructions from the respondent has also accepted this offer on the condition that in consideration for that the respondent agreed to waive off whatever amounts may be due to him on account of rent/future rent subject to the condition that the petitioners files an undertaking to the above effect before the Executing Court/Trial Court on or before 30.4.2018, failing which, this revision should be deemed to be dismissed.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has accepted this condition.

In the circumstances, the revision petition is disposed of in the above terms.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
