Kuldeep Singh, J. (Oral)

It comes out that notice of motion was issued on the payment of Rs.10,000/- as litigation expenses. The litigation expenses were not deposited and the petitioner was given another opportunity to deposit the same within two weeks. Thereafter, fresh notice was issued to the respondent. The Registry has reported that litigation expenses of Rs.10,000/- have not been deposited. Therefore, notice could not be issued to the respondent.

Since, order passed by this Court is not complied with and none is present on behalf of the petitioner to press this revision, the same is dismissed.
