M/s Shriram Transport Finance Co. Ltd.Petitioner

Vs

Amit and anotherRespondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ MOHAN SINGH

Present: Mr. Gaurav Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Perusal of the impugned order dated 30.11.2017 passed by Additional District Judge, Jind would show that execution petition was treated to be fully satisfied on the basis of statement made by the decree holder. In the event of alleging some fraud or undue influence, remedy available to the petitioner is to approach the same Court. Order 23 Rule 3-A CPC bars further action on the ground that the compromise on which the decree is passed was not lawful. Word 'not lawful' has been explained in Horil Vs. Keshav, (2012) 5 SCC 525 wherein, it was held that even fraudulent compromise is to be challenged before the same Court in terms of bar created under Order 23 Rule 3-A CPC.

In view of aforesaid, petition is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioner to approach the same Court. In case such a challenge is made, the same shall be decided in accordance with law.
