ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

The defendant-petitioner is in the revision petition against the order passed on 11.05.2016 by the trial Court closing her evidence.

It has been pleaded in the petition that the case was fixed for the evidence of the plaintiff in the year 2013 and the plaintiff was given two years time to lead his complete evidence. However, when the case was fixed for the defendant's evidence, the evidence was closed in less than six months time. It has been pleaded that the defendant has not been granted sufficient opportunities. It has further been asserted that the counsel for the plaintiff had sought five adjournments in order to cross-examine the witness produced by the defendant.

Taking into consideration the aforesaid facts, this Court is of the considered view that the defendant deserves to be granted one more opportunity to lead her entire evidence.

Hence, order under challenge is set aside. Revision petition is allowed.

The defendant-petitioner is granted one opportunity to lead her entire evidence on the date to be fixed by the trial Court subject to the payment of costs of ₹5,000/-.
