On 12.10.2018, the following order had been passed:-

“Pursuant to the order dated September 28, 2018, the report of the trial Court {Additional Civil Judge (Sr.Division), Narwana}, has been received, stating to the effect that the decree in question has been fully satisfied, with infact the execution proceedings having been withdrawn and disposed of as such on a statement made before that Court on 26.02.2018, with the parties duly represented by their counsel during the course of such proceedings.

Since counsel for the petitioner is not present, adjourned to 30.10.2018.”

However, the matter had still been kept pending since none was present for the petitioner.

Today learned counsel appears and submits that the petitioners are not responding to his phone calls.

That being so and in any case the report of the learned Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Narwana, being as recorded in the order dated 12.10.2018, this petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
