CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. R.S. Chauhan, Advocate
for the petitioner (In CR No.6961 of 2015)
for the respondent (In CR No.7267 of 2015)

Mr. R.K. Dadwal, Advocate
for the respondent (In CR No.6961 of 2015)
for the petitioner (In CR No.7267 of 2015)

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

Counsel for the husband-petitioner has at the outset submitted that the divorce petition filed by his client has already been dismissed.

These two revision petitions have been filed against the order passed by the learned trial Court under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act for grant of maintenance pendente lite. Husband seeks reduction whereas wife prays for enhancement. However, since, the divorce petition itself has been dismissed, in the considered opinion of this Court, no useful purpose would be served in keeping these revision petitions pending.

The maintenance pendente lite is fixed only for the duration of the divorce petition. Needless to say that such determination of the maintenance pendente lite is not final.

In view of the aforesaid, the revision petitions are dismissed as infructuous.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are disposed of, in view of the abovesaid judgment.
