AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

On the oral request of the counsel for the parties, the main revision is taken up for hearing today itself.

Counsel appearing for the parties state that the matter having been settled the keys of the premises in dispute has been handed over to the respondent-landlord and nothing is now due from the petitioners-tenants and consequently the present petition has been rendered infructuous and the same may be dismissed as such.

Resultantly, the revision petition stands dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
