KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

The short prayer pressed by learned counsel for petitioner at this stage is that execution filed by petitioner is pending for disbursement of enhanced compensation and the Executing Court is delaying the matter. Therefore, the Executing Court should be directed to decide the execution within a time bound manner.

In these circumstances, without going into merits of the case, the Executing Court is directed to decide the execution within six months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.
