The present revision petition has been filed by the petitioner/FCI against the impugned order dated 17.08.1999, passed by learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Batala, vide which partners of M/s Abrol Industries, Batala, namely, (i) Sukhwinder Singh s/o Bakhshish Singh;(ii) Jatinder Singh s/o Bakhshish Singh and (iii) Parjinder Singh s/o Jagir Singh were discharged in case FIR No.56 dated 10.03.1998, under Sections 406 and 408 of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Sadar, Batala.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has contended that the present matter is squarely covered with the view taken in the bunch of petitions by a Coordinate Bench of this Court in CRR No.627 of 2000 on 10.09.2007 and the same has attained finality. The operative part of the same is as under:-

“ For the foregoing reasons, I hereby accept all the aforesaid 12 revision petitions, set aside the impugned orders and remit the case back to the Trial Court with a direction to proceed with the case from the stage of framing the charge. Since the trial has already been delayed, therefore, the Trial Court will make all endeavor to conclude the trial as expeditiously as possible. ”

Learned Counsel for the respondent(s) has informed this Court that although he was not able to contact his clients, but he has fairly stated that so far as the controversy of factual and legal aspect is concerned, the same is duly covered in view of the decision rendered in CRR No.627 of 2000.

In view of the stand taken by both the parties, the present revision is allowed with the directions in the same terms as passed in CRR No.627 of 2000, reproduced above.
