The applicant-appellant has already undergone his entire sentence but he was not released as he has not deposited the fine imposed along with the sentence and was undergoing the default sentence of 2 years.

On the last date, the sentence of the applicant-appellant was suspended for a period of one month to enable him to deposit the fine.

Learned counsel for the applicant says that the applicant has deposited the fine on 29.08.2018. Report of the CJM, Palwal has also been received that the applicant has deposited the fine. Photocopy of the receipt is attached with the report.

Learned counsel for the appellant states that since the appellant has completed his sentence and has also paid the fine, therefore, the present appeal has been rendered infructuous and same may be disposed of as such.

In view of the above, application (CRM-22841-2018) is disposed of and the main appeal is taken up for hearing today itself and is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
