Rekha Mittal, J. (Oral)

The matter is pending since May 19, 2014 for impleading legal representative(s) of respondent No. 1 and the appellants or for that matter counsel for the appellants have failed to comply with orders despite last opportunity allowed on 23.04.2018. That being so, there is no justification for allowing another opportunity to implead LR(s) of respondent No. 1.

As the appeal has been preferred by the claimants against judgment of dismissal passed by the Tribunal, the same cannot be decided on merits in absence of respondent No. 1 or his legal representative(s). In the given scenario, nothing survives for consideration of this Court. As a consequence, the appeal is dismissed.
